To begin the decade of the 1970's the Delhi Yearbook Staff unveils the 25th edition of the ARKTOS. We have strived to preserve the school year exactly as it occurred in this, our Silver Anniversary Edition. We hope that you will cherish the 1970 ARKTOS in the years to come.

Dedication

Since she came to Delhi High School eight years ago, this teacher has inspired and taught by example, thus providing training in leadership and high morals, as well as in athletics. This enthusiastic teacher has been helpful to all students at D. H. S. Stressing that sportsmanship is foremost, she has led the girls' basketball team to second place in the state in 1966 and 1969. For these numerous services we proudly dedicate the 25th edition of the ARKTOS to MRS. LOU DEAN STROUD.

What's It All About

Mr. Craig kept track of time while on bus duty.

"Hurry, one minute till tardy bell!"

"DRATS, on time again!"

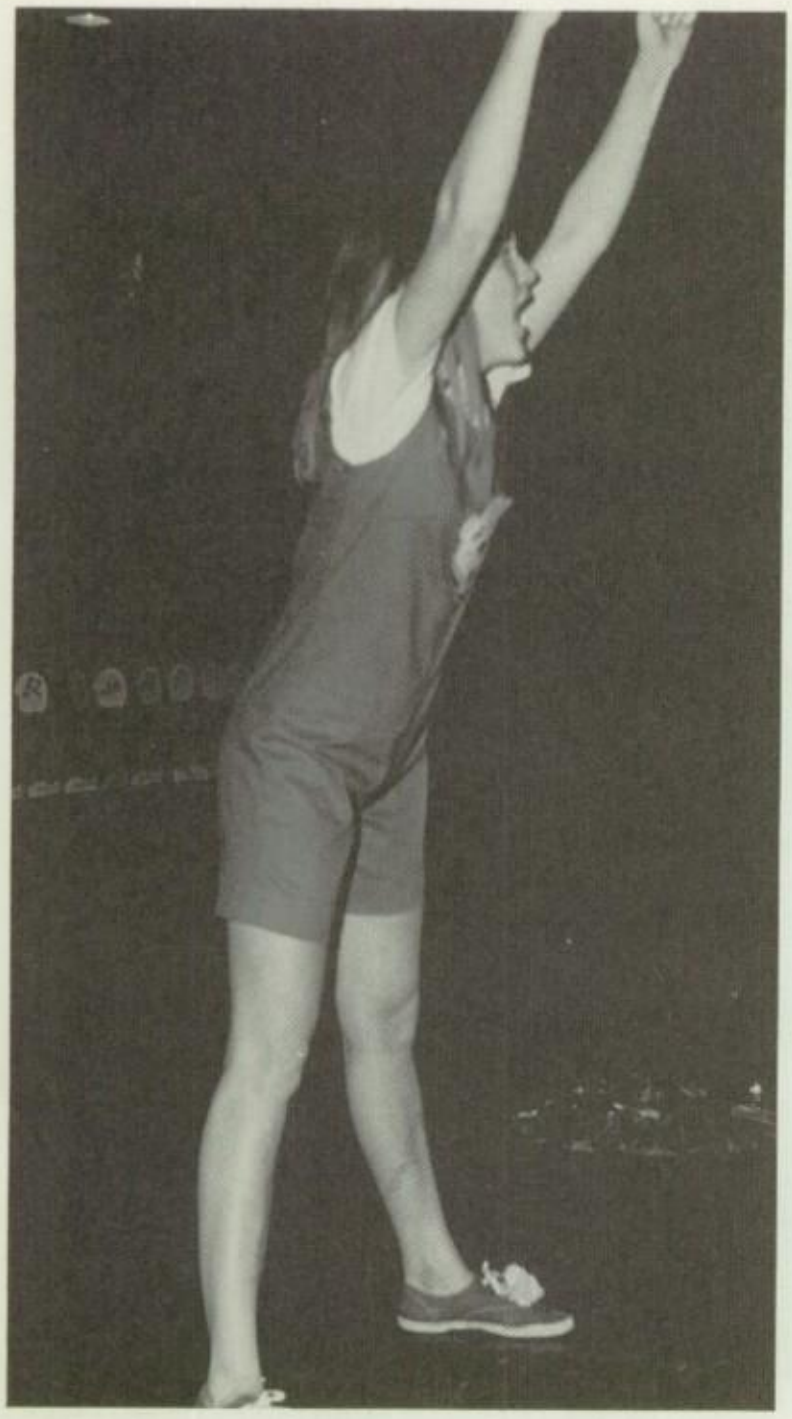
It's About Time . . .

Mrs. Dishongh gave bits of wisdom to a home economics class.

Classes and Fun

Recess was an active part of the day.

Students enjoyed popular tunes from pep band.



Cheerleaders boosted Bears to success.

At practive sessions breathers were a must.

Activities . . .

"Move along! It's eatin' time!"

What a beaut - Ours at last!

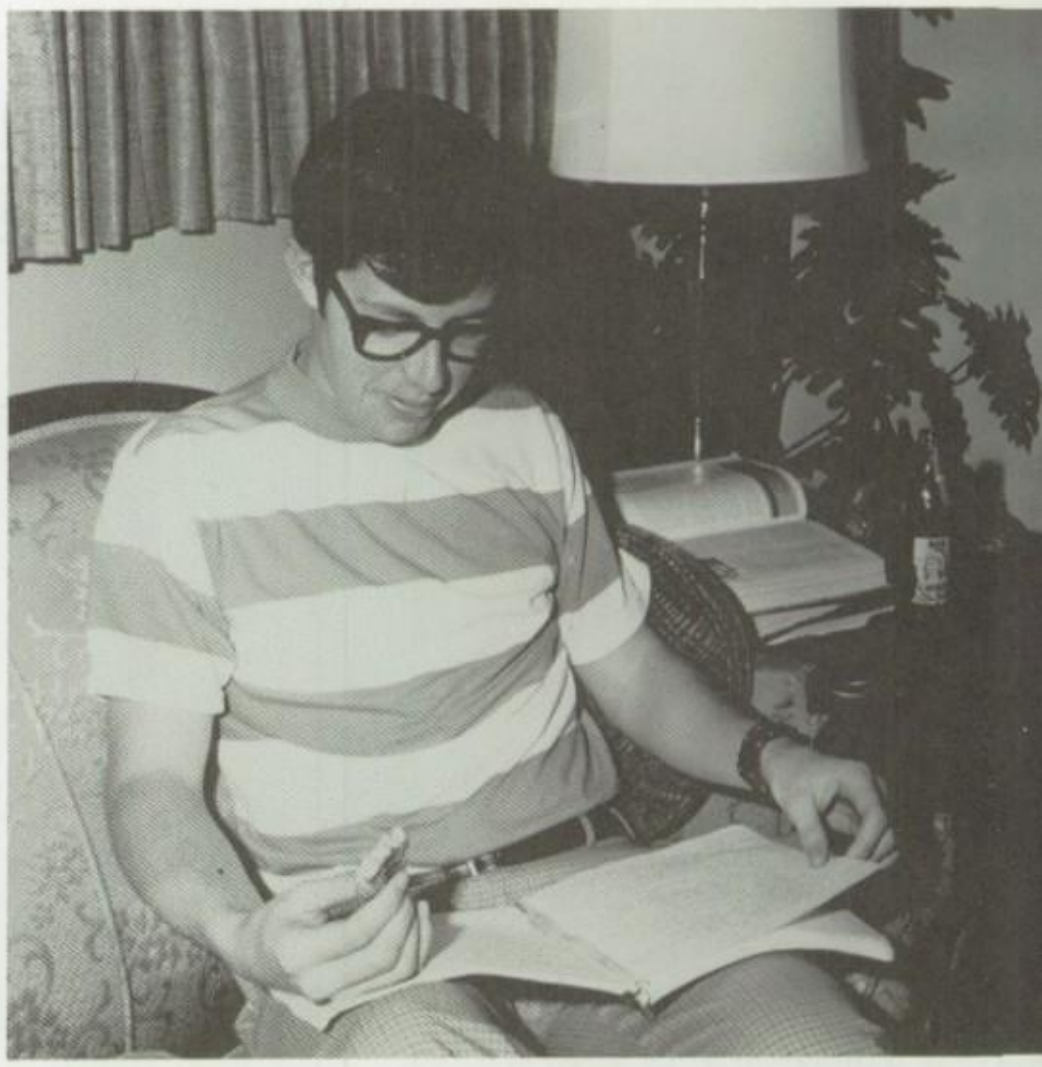
There was a time for music and a time for ballgames.

Organizations and Vocations

COE students know training builds the future.

Sports and Study

"On your mark. Get set. GO!"



Food for the body and food for the mind.

Most Important, It's About You!

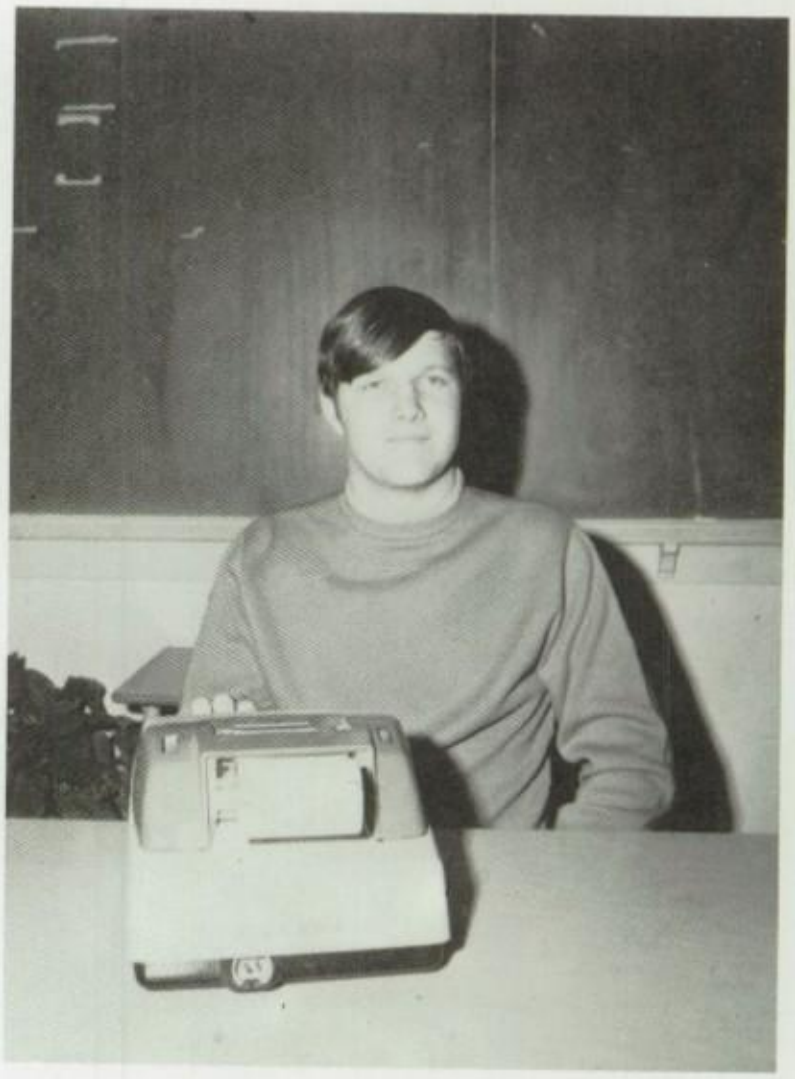
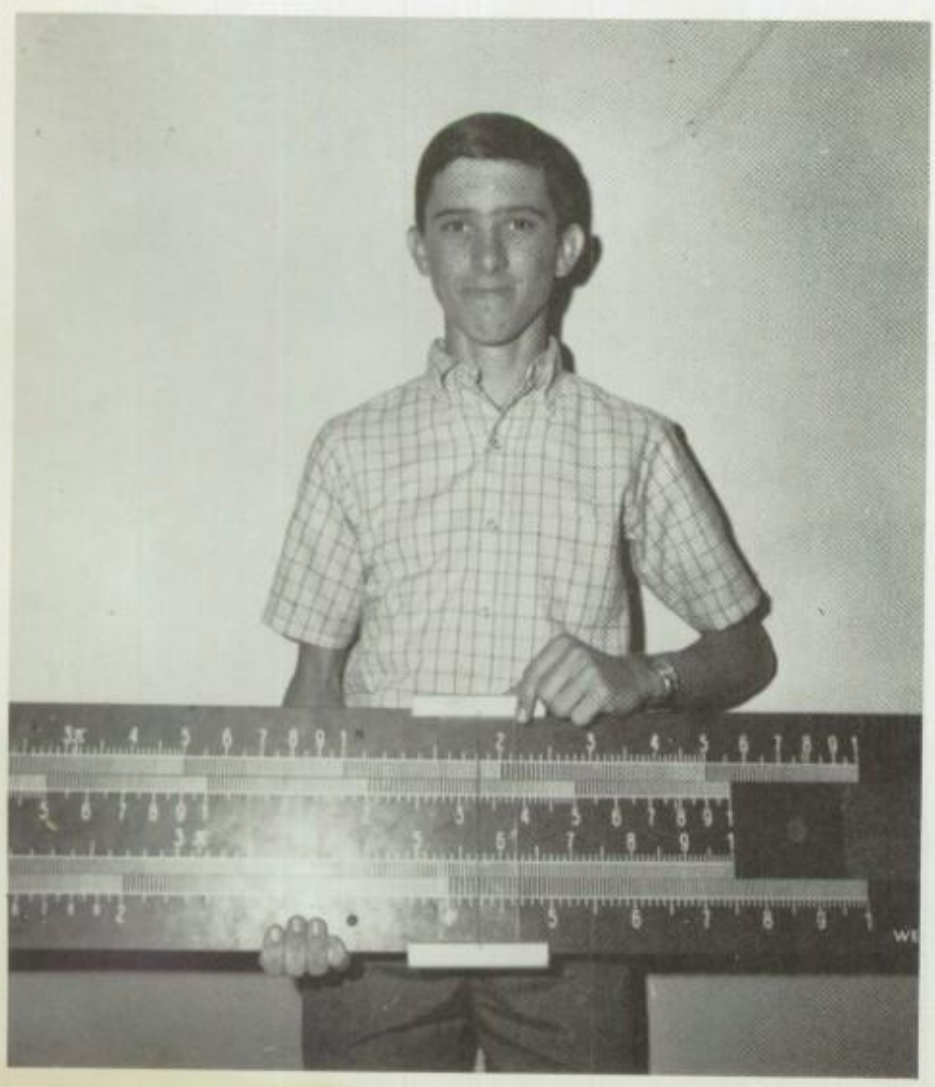
Who's Who Honor

DAN SLEDGE's character, honesty, and dependability places him high on the Who's Who list. Dan has proven his ability in club activities, athletics, and cooperative projects sponsored by Delhi High School.



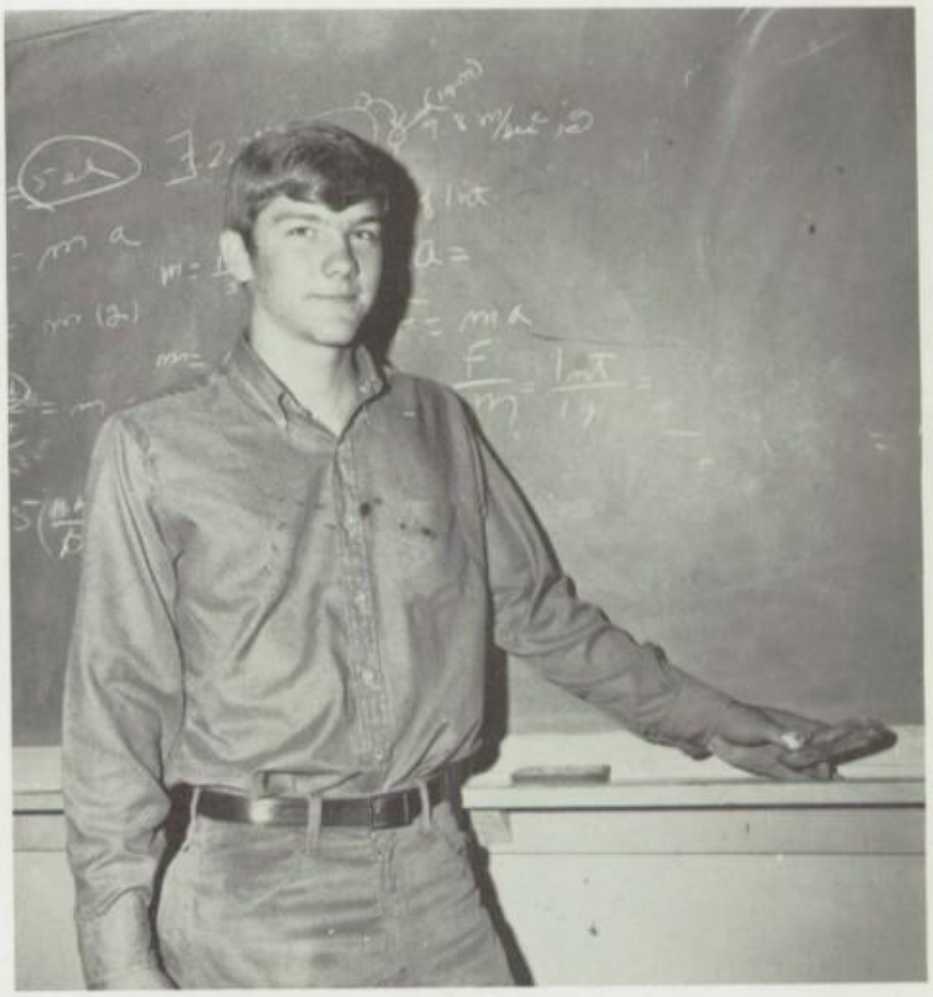
This personable, mild-mannered student always displays friendliness, a cooperative spirit, and a dedication to the task at hand. We're very proud that MARY LEE ANDERSON represents the finest at Delhi High School.



Ready. Willing. Capable. These well describe GARY LESTER, chosen as a member of D.H.S. Who's Who. Gary is always there to do his part and take up where someone else may have not done his share. Delhi High is proud to have him with us.

Bestowed on Students

This boy is quite an asset to the program of D.H.S. CLAYTON COOPER is a well-adjusted student who lends much to his fellow students. We in Delhi are pleased to have known him.



Friendliness, dependability, initiative, cooperativeness - all of these attributes make PRISCILLA THOMPSON a worthy selection for Delhi High School's Who's Who 1969-1970.

LISA MEDARIES is an asset to her school and community. Her versatileness, charm, creativeness, cooperativeness, and ability to get along with others are only some of her admirable attributes.
